

Driving Directions to Eagle Harbor Township's George Hite Dunes & Marshes Preserve

From Hancock:

1. Head North on US-41 for 26 miles, following signs for Copper Harbor
2. Turn Left onto M-26 in Phoenix
3. Follow M-26 for 6.2 miles, passing through Eagle River
4. Park at the Redwyn Dunes Sanctuary, located on the Right side of M-26
5. Hike the Redwyn Dunes trails to access the George Hite Dunes & Marshes Preserve

Note: Be on the lookout for a Michigan Nature Area sign parallel to M-26, it can be hard to miss! If you reach the large Great Sand Bay parking area on M-26 you have gone too far. All roads in this area are plowed year-round, though the parking area may not be. Enter these coordinates into your GPS device for assistance on finding where to park: 47.436624, -88.223657.

The George Hite Dunes & Marshes Preserve is owned by Eagle Harbor Township. The Keweenaw Land Trust has a conservation easement on this property to ensure its high quality habitats are protected forever.
